

ICT Training

United States

Welcome to ICT Training! This guide covers everything you need to prepare for your three-day training at our Colorado office, including registration, travel tips, what to expect, and GX Level 1 certification. We look forward to seeing you!

Scheduling Training

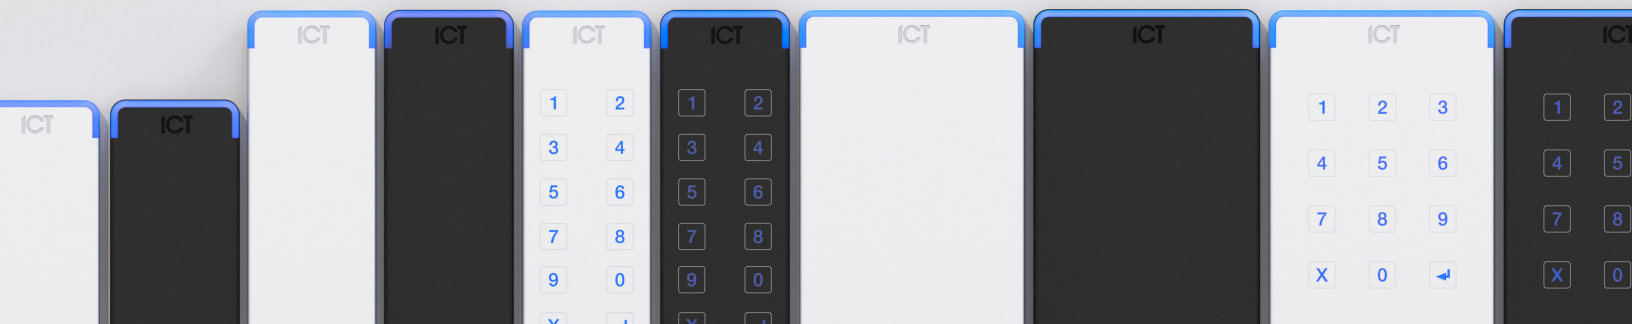

Scheduling your training is easy! Training is free, but you'll be required to submit a $500 PO to hold your place. You will only be charged if you do not show up for training.

Existing Partner Scheduling

1. Go to <https://learn.ict.co/learn>
2. Click "Find a Facilitated Training Course"
3. Click "Facilitated Training Enquiry" and Submit Details, or Submit PO to ussales@ict.co with student's full name, email address, company and date of class.
4. Our team will verify your PO and online request and approve your enrollment with a confirmation email.

New Partner Scheduling

1. Go to <https://www.ict.co>
2. Navigate to "Partners > Become a Partner" <https://www.ict.co/partners/become-a-partner/>
3. Click on "Become a Partner" and fill out the form then "Submit Details"
4. A sales representative will reach out to get you set up with an account and signed up for a class.

Travel Tips

Travel arrangements are the responsibility of the trainee. ICT does not pay for or make travel arrangements, but we have outlined the following recommendations to make your planning easier.

Flights

For your training, plan to fly into Denver International Airport (DEN).

- Denver International Airport (DEN) is about a 40-minute drive to the ICT office where training is.
- Driving: We highly recommend that you rent a car from Denver International Airport, but there are also
- Taxis and ride-share options available at the airport.

Hotels

For your stay, there are several hotels within two miles of the ICT office:

- Home2 Suites by Hilton Denver South Centennial Airport
6640 South Paris Street, Centennial, Colorado, 80112, USA
303-662-8888
- Holiday Inn & Suites Denver Tech Center – Centennial
6638 S Nome Street Centennial, CO 80111 United States
303-708-3000
